health and avoid sickness. Instead of feeling tired and worn out, instead of aches and pains, wouldn't you rather feel fresh and strong?

You can continue feeling miserable and good for nothing, and no one but yourself can find fault, but if you are tired of that kind of life, you can change it if you choose.

How? By getting one bottle of BROWN'S IRON BITTERS, and taking it regularly according to directions.

Mansfield, Ohio, Nov. 26, 1881.

Gentlemen:—I have suffered with pain in my side and back, and great nervousness on my breast, with shooting pains all through my body, attended with great weakness, depression of spirits, and loss of appetite. I have taken several different medicines, and was treated by prominent physicians for my liver, kidneys, and spleen, but I got no relief. I thought I would try Brown's Iron Bitters. I have now taken one bottle and a half and am about well—pain in side and back all gone—nervousness all out of my breast, and I have a good appetite, and am gaining in strength and flesh. It can justly be called the king of medicines.

THE REEK-ANDERSON MATTER.

The Eureka Sentinel reproduces the interview a GAZETTE reporter had with Mrs. Anderson, the widow of the late James E. Anderson, editor of the Leader, "not from choice, but because it is quoted by the Territorial Enterprise, and used by that paper with editorial comments to maintain the position which it started out to establish; that is, that the preliminary examination in the Anderson-Reek shooting affair was but a mockery of justice," and adds: "We accept the report as correct, presuming, of course, that Mr. Fulton, editor of the Reno GAZETTE, would not color the statement which it contains with the bias that his paper, along with the Enterprise, has shown in the discussion of this case."

The GAZETTE, far from showing any bias, has had but very little to say on the subject, one way or the other. We have always been of the opinion, however, that Mr. Reek was the aggressor in the first instance when he endorsed the grossly insulting card written by his father-in-law. We have held to the opinion that the Sentinel was, to say the least, very indiscreet when it published it. The first visit Reek made to Eureka after his card had appeared in print, was the day of the shooting. Just before the shooting he was on the sidewalk talking with Thomas Dale, with his hand in his pocket, grasping the handle of a deadly weapon. If Mr. Reek did not intend mischief why did he go to Eureka armed with a pistol? School-masters, as a general thing, do not carry six-shooters when living in a civilized country. Mr. Reek, however, seems to be an exception to the rule. He leaves his schoolroom at Ruby Hill and goes to Eureka. What for? While engaged in conversation with Thomas Dale he observes Mr. Anderson on the opposite side of the street. He (Reek) had ample time to get out of harm's way if he thought there was anything to fear from meeting Anderson. Instead of walking away, however, he said to Dale: "Here comes Anderson," at the same time grasping Dale by the neck and pulling his hands from his pockets. The evidence shows that Reek shot at least five times; it also shows that Anderson was killed. Reek was "examined" before a Justice of the Peace and discharged, or, as the Sentinel puts it, was "duly vindicated" by the ordinary course of justice. There is no disputing the fact that Anderson was killed, and that Reek was his slayer. There is no disputing the fact that the taking of human life is in violation of the laws of the State unless done in self-defense, and the books say what constitutes self-defense or justifiable homicide.

The right to take an assailant's life is only to be exercised when no other means of escape are open. When a man expects to be attacked, the right of self-defense does not arise until he has done everything to avoid the necessity of using it; or, in other words, one must not have brought upon himself the necessity which he sets up in his own defense. A man must get away, if possible, and when he cannot go any farther, and is still pursued, and as a reasonable man, knows, or has good reasons for thinking, his life to be in danger, then, and not until then, is he justified in taking the life of a human being. There was nothing introduced in evidence at the Reek "examination" to show that Mr. Reek attempted to avoid trouble. On the contrary, he fired five shots from his pistol, and had wounded Anderson to death before he started, or showed any disposition to avoid a meeting. Taking all the circumstances into consideration, that Reek, following the vocation of a teacher in the public school, going to Eureka armed with a pistol and standing on the street watching Anderson's approach instead of avoiding a meeting, after the publication of his grossly insulting card, they would seem to have warranted a rigid examination into the minutest detail of the unfortunate affray. Mrs. Anderson's testimony might have been of very material importance had she been put upon the stand; but her testimony was not taken at all. The preliminary examination seems to have been conducted with the sole object of proving that Anderson was the aggressor and fired the first shot, and so long as that was proven it was enough to satisfy Justice Harmon that no offense had been committed and that Reek should be vindicated with the blood of his victim still dripping from his hands, as it were. If Justice Harmon was satisfied, there was nothing more to say.

Hon. W. H. Davenport, the District Attorney, publishes a card in the Sentinel in which he says: "I may be unfortunate in not being able to hunt up testimony which would justify me in insisting that Reek should stand his trial for the killing of James E. Anderson, but I am not conscious of any dereliction of duty, or lack of zeal, or diligence, in presenting all the testimony obtainable and which was pertinent to the case. Not one of the witnesses to whom the Enterprise has referred as important, and who should have been called can testify to anything (if their several statements to me are to be believed) which would shed any light upon the commencement of the affray between Anderson and Reek."

He says not one of the witnesses referred to by the Enterprise can testify to anything which would shed any light upon the commencement of the affray. If the witness referred to could "shed any light" or even corroborate the testimony of other witnesses, they should have been summoned, and their testimony taken. Mr. Davenport's card says further: "It would not be proper, I apprehend, for me to analyze the testimony already given, or to intimate what further evidence will be produced, because the Grand Jury will undoubtedly investigate the matter, when all that can be said on either side, in the shape of legitimate evidence, will be presented."

If all the evidence touching the painful subject had been presented and properly analyzed at Reek's preliminary examination, we imagine that Mr. Reek would not have been "vindicated by the ordinary course of justice."

EDITORIAL NOTES.

A report came from Wadsworth this afternoon to the effect that the Washoe and Piute Indians had declared war against each other and that a bloody conflict was going on. The report lacks confirmation, and up to the GAZETTE's press hour nothing authentic regarding the reported trouble could be learned. The Washoes have been talking of going to war with the Piutes for a year or two to redress the wrongs that tribe have been guilty of towards the Washoes, but nothing has ever come of the talk, and the report to-day may turn out to be false.

The Republican defeat in Kansas leads the Atchison Champion to conclude that it is not safe, even with a political majority of 50,000 to attempt to carry all the "isms," the long-haired men and short haired women outside of the lunatic asylums may present.

The Globe-Democrat, noting the criticisms of Mrs. Langtry's Rosalind, says: The part of Rosalind, so far as this generation is concerned, died with Miss Neilson, just as the part of Lady Macbeth died with Charlotte Cushman.

The Chinese authorities threaten to withdraw their minister from Washington, leaving only a consul there. The people of the Pacific slope won't object if the Chinese authorities withdraw every Chinaman in America.

Stanford's Young Trotters.

New York, Nov. 24. Ex-Governor Stanford has finally determined to ship his stable back to California. He is desirous, however, of seeing a race between his Wildflower and Annie Stern, a three-year-old, before preparing for shipment. On Monday he visited the Gentlemen's Driving Park to see Hinda Rose and Wildflower work. The track was somewhat rough and by no means elastic, but the two-year-old trotted a half mile in 1:03 and the three-year-old covered the same distance in 1:08. He has authorized Turf, Field and Farm to announce that if any race can be arranged within or near two weeks with Eva, Alloy, Algahs, or any other 3-year-old in it, Wildflower shall be one of the starters. Otherwise Wildflower and Hinda Rose will commence their journey to the Pacific coast next week, where they will be trotted against time. It is his belief that Hinda-Rose can beat 2:21, and that Wildflower can cut down the 3-year-old record. He has some promising yearling and 2-year-olds which he proposes to bring east next summer to trot in the stakes at Lexington and in the vicinity of this city.

TO-DAY'S NEWS

Press Dispatches to EVENING GAZETTE.

EASTERN DISPATCHES.

The Nicaragua Canal. WASHINGTON, Nov. 24.

Advocates of the proposed Nicaragua canal will spare no effort to secure the passage of their bill at the coming session of Congress, and supporters of the Eades ship railway will do all they can in behalf of their project. A bill for the construction of the Nicaragua canal was favorably reported from the House Committee on Foreign Affairs by Mr. Kasson a few days before the close of the last session. Blount of Georgia has now sent to the clerk of that committee a minority report. He especially objects to the proposed guarantee by the United States of 3 per cent. per annum upon $75,000,000 in canal bonds for 20 years. This is one of the provisions of the majority bill. Perry Belmont has been here examining treaties and other matters relating to the subject, and it is said that he may sign Blount's minority report. Kasson, one of the ablest members of the House, will ask for a consideration of his bill at an early day. He has a deep conviction of the importance of early action, and says that the Government would probably not be called upon to pay 3 per cent., as there is now already waiting for the canal sufficient business to make it profitable. He says that the cost of the canal, exclusive of two harbors, may be roughly estimated at $52,000,000. The Clayton-Bulwer treaty is no barrier. Preliminary and Blaine agree with him upon this point, he says, although reaching three opinions in different ways. If the House should pass the bill the Eades bill would be moved as an amendment in the Senate; and Vest says that if the Eades bill should be defeated he will insist that the 3 per cent. guarantee shall not be operative until after the completion of the canal.

A bill will be called up almost immediately on the assembling of Congress by Miller of California, who has made it the special order for the first day of the session. He acts under instructions from the Legislature of his State. The projectors of this canal will do all they can to secure the passage of the measure, but they have not much hope that Congress will take any action on subsidy bills at the coming session. Admiral Ammen, the chief advocate of the canal, hopes to be able to persuade the President to favor the project in his message. General Grant still favors it, and may return from Mexico by way of Nicaragua.

The Treaty with Corea. WASHINGTON, Nov. 24.

Commodore Shufeldt states that although much apprehension exists in the public mind regarding negotiations of a treaty of this country with Corea, and much as he might desire to satisfy public curiosity on the subject, he did not feel at liberty at present to say anything whatever upon the subject; that the treaty and all correspondence and reports of his action in the matter were in the hands of the Government. Until the treaty had been passed upon by the Senate it would be manifestly improper for him to discuss it. In response to an inquiry at the State Department, it was learned that no foundation exists, so far as the Department is concerned, for the rumors which have been in circulation that Commodore Shufeldt had failed in his negotiations and that his recall was in some sense due to that fact. On the contrary, the Department is well satisfied with the result of the negotiations. The question as to whether the treaty is not the best for this country that could have been negotiated is purely one for the Senate of the United States to decide.

Gorham's Chances. WASHINGTON, Nov. 23.

Senator Vest (Democrat) when interrogated on the subject of the Senate reorganization, said that there was no probability of George Gorham's becoming Secretary. There were several half-breed Senators, in his opinion, who would not vote for Gorham, but would rather see a Democrat chosen if it came to an issue. To the suggestion that Democrats might possibly control enough votes to organize, he replied that he was of the opinion that some trouble might be experienced in regard to President pro tem. He does not believe Senator Anthony can be elected.

The Fascinating Drummer. OMAHA, Nov. 23.

Will B. Corwin, an Omaha commercial traveler, was married at Hastings yesterday to Lulu Brown, with whom he eloped from Kearney, half an hour before she was to have been married to a druggist named Shepard, who had issued a large number of invitations to the wedding. He had fitted up rooms in elegant style for his prospective bride.

Surplus Millions—The Forthcoming Treasury Report. NEW YORK, Nov. 24.

The Sun's Washington special has the following on the forthcoming report of Folger: The Secretary will estimate the surplus at the end of the fiscal year of 1894 at $80,000,000. He relies upon important decreases in the river and harbor bill and in fact all appropriations. He will hint at a tendency to Congressional extravagance and will intimate that this extravagance has been fostered by the knowledge that there would be a surplus of $145,000,000 exclusive of the sinking fund at the end of the last fiscal year. The Secretary will urge a reduction of taxation on the ground that surpluses tend to extravagance. He will recommend that the debt ought not to be paid off more rapidly than it comes due. He will remind Congress that this can be done simply by meeting the sinking fund. He will oppose the abolition of the internal revenue tax, but will go further than he did last year respecting a reduction of these taxes. He will still urge that spirits and tobacco be taxed, but will suggest that the amount may be safely reduced. He will also recommend that the pending tax bill be passed. He further recommends a tariff reduction, but will make no special recommendation on this subject except to call attention to the work of the Tariff Commission. He will confine himself to recommending a careful and thorough revision of the tariff, though he will suggest a reduction of the sugar tax and that on iron and steel manufactures.

It is plain that the Secretary and President mean to do all in their power this winter to bring Congress to its senses, and that John Sherman is to be the administration's ally on the floor of the Senate. He will see the Secretary through and give him such advice as he may deem necessary. In other words, Sherman's sway over the Treasury is restored.

The Labor Congress. CLEVELAND, Nov. 23.

The Labor Congress this forenoon adopted a resolution by Robert Howard of Fall River, Massachusetts, representing the Mule-spinners' Union, condemning the Pacific Mills of Lawrence and Harmony Mills of Cohoes for forcing on a lock-out by a reduction of wages alleged to be unnecessary and oppressive. The legislative commission was instructed to urge the incorporation of a trades union; tenement-house cigar-making was denounced, and it was voted to meet in New York on the third Tuesday of next August.

Storm on Lake Erie. BUFFALO, Nov. 24.

Early this morning a very severe storm broke over the city, and for half an hour the gale was accompanied by thunder and lightning. The schooner J. W. Doane, from Erie, was forced ashore at the breakwater and bids fair to become a total wreck. The steam barge Empire safely arrived, having broken away from her two schooners, the Groton and A. H. Moss, which it is feared are lost.

Forger Arrested. BOSTON, Nov. 24.

Ejot Rydo, who has been engaged on a Boston newspaper, has been arrested at the instance of the British Consul for forging the name of J. R. Lowell to a bill of exchange at Kent, England, and is liable to be extradited.

WESTERN TELEGRAMS.

The Crime of a Beast. SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 13.

A man known to the police as John Doe Henderson on Tuesday evening inveigled a sixteen-year-old girl, Nellie Fretsch, who was seeking employment, into crossing the bay with him, on the pretense of giving her employment in his family. They left the Berkeley cars at the end of the route, and when at a distance from any house Henderson perpetrated a criminal outrage on the girl. He then took her to a hotel, and by threats compelled her to pass herself off as his wife, but watching her opportunity, she disclosed the facts to the landlady. Henderson took the alarm and fled across the country.

Death of a Woman who Could Keep a Secret. PORTLAND, Or., Nov. 24.

Mrs. Captain John Smith, daughter of Morgan, supposed to have been killed by the Masons in 1826, died at her home in Tehama, Marion county, Monday, aged 60. She never threw any light on the alleged tragedy, though it is believed that she must have heard much about it from her mother and other relatives. She had been frequently interrogated, but spoke of the matter with the greatest reluctance.

Suspended for Cause. SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 24.

United States Commissioner O'Berne has been suspended from duty on a charge of misconduct in connection with the case of seizure of smuggled opium which has recently been prominent in the United States Court.

FOREIGN TELEGRAPH.

Our Supreme Court Complimented. LONDON, Nov. 23.

The Marquis of Salisbury, in an address before the Scottish Conservative Club of Edinburgh last Tuesday night, taunted the Liberal Government with having adopted its predecessors' Egyptian policy. He strongly denounced the action of the Government toward Ireland and condemned the Arrears of Rent Act. He had, he said, favored the schemes of peasant proprietary that were now impossible, as the surplus fund had been otherwise disposed of. Stigmatizing the vagueness of Gladstone's utterances, he said: "I confess I do not often envy the United States, but their institutions possess one feature which appears to me a subject for the greatest envy, namely, their magnificent institution of the Supreme Court. If their Parliament passes a measure inconsistent with the Constitution of the country there exists a court which will negative it at once, thus giving a stability to the institutions of the country which, under a series of vague and mysterious promises here, we look for in vain." His remarks were received with applause.

Distress in Ireland. LONDON, Nov. 24.

It has been officially reported to the government that wide-spread distress is feared in Ireland this winter. The districts most seriously affected through want of employment on farms and failure of the potato crop are Sligo, Ballina, Swinford, and the greater portion of Galway. There is much destitution in the west of Clare and Connaught. Owing to the continuously heavy demand upon Irishmen in America to support the Land League, there has been a considerable decrease in remittances to the struggling natives in Ireland. This has reduced many to a starving condition, being unable to purchase new seed.

Dodged the Gallows. NORTH TROY, Nov. 24.

Excitement is caused here owing to a report that recruits are refusing to proceed to Sudan unless they go under the command of Arabi Pasha. The announcement that Sojeillet, a French traveller, has taken possession of the Bay of Tajorah, has caused surprise in Government circles here, as Tajorah belongs to Egypt.

LIEBIG MALT EXTRACT.

RECOMMENDED BY PHYSICIANS of the highest eminence on both sides of the Atlantic, as an invaluable Tonic and Restorative in cases of General Debility, Nervous Depression, Enfeebled Constitution and Female Weakness.

NURSING MOTHERS, who suffer from poverty of milk, will find it a specific for their troubles. It stimulates the digestion, sharpens the appetite, invigorates and builds up the entire system, and secures a generous flow of milk.

WEAK AND SICKLY CHILDREN, who suffer from indigestion and weakness, the result of disease, over-study, or nervous strain, will derive substantial benefit from Liebig's Malt Extract. It restores the system to its normal condition and brings back the bloom of youth.

INVALIDS AND CONVALESCENTS will find it admirably adapted for sustaining life, and restoring lost strength. When the stomach is weak and refuses other nourishment, the Extract will prove an excellent substitute for food. It neither palliates nor the appetite nor offends the taste.

DELICATE FEMALES, who suffer from the weakness of their sex, will derive lasting relief from its use. It improves the digestion, purifies the blood, stimulates the appetite, and restores the system.

WEAK AND DELICATE PERSONS GENERALLY, who require artificial nourishment, will find this preparation exactly suited to their needs. It is a specific for the Cough and Nervous Affections usually incident to a low state of the system.

AS A FINE RESTORER it possesses the highest value. The whole tendency of its action is to stimulate the digestion of fat-producing foods, and its effect is invariably to give fullness and roundness to the frame, and robustness to the muscular frame.

THE LIEBIG MALT EXTRACT is a pure compound of malted barley, malted wheat, and malted rye, and contains no alcohol. It is readily retained on the stomach and contains no food that is indigestible or that is likely to offend the taste. The genuine preparation bears on the label a fine engraved likeness of Baron von Liebig, and a facsimile of his signature, as well as that of A. VOGEL & CO., BARMEN, Sole Agents for America.

JOTTINGS.

Secure your partners for the Reno Guard ball.

Seventeen car-loads of beef cattle went west last night.

The morning express was late, owing to a heavy train.

Dark spots on the sun can be plainly seen through smoked glass.

Somebody will some day wish that he had never sold whisky to Indians.

A furnished room, very pleasantly located, for rent. Inquire at GAZETTE office.

The newly-elected county officers are getting ready to start out on a grand hunt for bondsmen.

Russia leather photograph and autograph albums at Nasby's Bazaar. Thermometer at 7, 9, 11, 1 and 3—24, 32, 46, 47, 49.

The overland express last night had hard work to stow away all the baggage and scenery belonging to the Palmer troupe.

Don't forget the ladies to-night. The Woman's Christian Temperance Union, at their new hall, will offer a good supper for 25 cents.

Eight bars of bullion, worth $16,000, from the Navajo mine at Tuscarora, and three bars worth $5,000, from the Independence, went west last night.

Brookings yesterday sent a bell-organ up the V. & T. road to L. D. Smith, at Pleasant Valley. The purchaser has just got married and feels the need of soothing music.

Long special freight trains are daily occurrences. The regular trains cannot do half the business. California is sending east an immense quantity of her products.

All the children will expect holiday presents, and nobody is better fixed for supplying them than Nasby. The Bazaar is full of toys and notions, besides useful articles suitable for presents.

Prof. Carr's night school will open Monday evening in the high school room of the public school building at 7:30 o'clock. He will give six lessons per week in all the English branches for $4 per month. See 50-cent ad.

The new cigar and tobacco store of Davis & Son adjoining the Capitol saloon, will be stocked next Monday, and will be one of the finest places of the kind in the State. Mr. Davis is now in San Francisco purchasing a large stock of goods.

There is considerable talk about the hard winter we will have, and how we are going to suffer with cold, and so on. The winter cannot possibly be hard on Renosites, as Chase & Thyes have a large stock of the finest of liquors, which they mix up in such a manner as to infuse life into a cast-iron statue.

The holidays are coming on, and every well-bred citizen ought to treat himself to a suit of good clothes, so that he will be able to make a creditable appearance at the social parties of the season. The White House is the place of all others where you can go and get rigged out like a prince for a very small sum of money, and Abrahams Bros. know how to do it.

PERSONALS.

G. W. Bell of Oakland is stopping at the Arcade.

Captain Sam Curtis, the old Comstock mining superintendent, was a passenger for the Bay last night.

B. C. Thomas, present Sheriff of Lander county, is a candidate for Sergeant-at-arms of the next Nevada Senate.

H. G. Ambrose, C. J. Lee, G. Hillman and P. J. Doyle of Quincy, Plumas county, are registered at the Arcade.

Isaac N. Fassett, Deputy Surveyor-General, will return to Wellsville, N. Y., after the expiration of his term of office, to remain.

Letters addressed to Master E. Roberts and Jas. Gault, Reno, and Miss Libbie Beebe, Steamboat, are held for postage in the office at Virginia City.

Senator Fair has gone south on the C. & C. road, to examine the Mount Cory mine, about 12 miles east of Hawthorne, in which he and J. W. Mackay are interested.

Found a Home.

Two little boys, the sons of Mrs. Glassett of Virginia City, who cut her babe's head off when deranged in mind, and who is now in the insane asylum, have been sent to Grass Valley and put in charge of the Sisters at the Convent.

THE VALUE OF MICA.

A Discovery that may prove of Great Profit to Somebody.

A GAZETTE reporter has been shown several sheets of mica taken from a deposit discovered north of Pyramid Lake, where it is said to be in abundance, in flat veins from two to four inches in thickness. The samples shown were quite pure and of silvery whiteness, and almost as flexible as paper. If the material is to be found in any great quantity the discovery is a valuable one. To the uninformed it may appear strange, but mica to-day is a staple article of commerce. The fact that mica used in stoves must be replaced almost annually creates a steady demand. Its application to shoes has recently been patented, whereby soles, at trifling expense, are rendered perfectly waterproof. And wherever the quantity of mica produced is sufficient to supply the demand and the market price is reduced, then new uses and applications of it will arise. As a lubricator, it stands pre-eminent, owing to its non-friction qualities. Several patents exist in which this mineral, in a ground state, combined with oil, is used to lubricate machinery. The market value of mica is great and at the present time the demand is such that it cannot be supplied. A piece of mica four inches by four inches, five-eighths of an inch thick, will weigh one pound, and has a market value of $4. A piece three by six inches one-half inch thick, will weigh one pound and has a market value of $4.60, and a like relative portion of value exists except in the smallest pieces, say one-half by two inches, which have a value of 50 cents per pound, and all the refuse and trimmings of the mica are readily sold to parties who pulverize them for use in the manufacture of nitro-glycerine and other dangerous explosives. It will thus be seen that in mica mining we have an industry worthy of development, and one which requires no expensive manipulation of the product after it is mined.

On a Big Bear Hunt.

Jack Fitzgerald and George Todhunter started out yesterday for a grand bear hunt, for about three weeks—perhaps indefinitely, if a big bear gets hold of them, or they become frightened and start on a run for the north pole. They will radiate from Cedarville, to which place they will retreat in case they should encounter fierce game. The first day or two after they arrive on the hunting grounds will be devoted to ascertaining where bears are most likely to be found. These places they will studiously avoid, for it is fun they are after and not the empty reputation of being chased up and mangled into juiceless stiffs. Their outfit comprises everything that is necessary to a reasonable man's happiness. The cornerstone of the subsistence department was a demijohn of whiskey. Then there was a box of delicious sardines, and then more whisky to "chock it off" so that it wouldn't fetch away and get smashed in the bottom of the wagon. They will have a royal time, no doubt. Look out for some big bear stories when they return. Jack has been practicing tree-climbing for some time, and thinks he can get away from anything that can't fly.

A Visitor's Opinion.

Hon. Fred Dangbery, from Douglas county, was in town to-day. He paid a visit to the asylum and prison grounds. Mr. Dangbery expressed much surprise to find the patients so comfortably quartered. He had no idea we had such a beautiful property here and considers the building a very handsome structure. Mr. Dangbery says if the State's farm was properly cultivated it would produce from five to ten tons of potatoes to the acre. If this statement be correct the crop that could be raised on the State's 320 acres would go far towards supporting both the prison and asylum.

Death of an Old Settler.

Wednesday afternoon Theophile Lay died at his residence in Golconda. The Silver State says: Deceased, with his brother Louis, came to Winnemucca in the early days of the place, and carried on the Winnemucca Hotel. Subsequently he moved to Golconda, where, in connection with his brothers, he conducted the business of farming and hotel-keeping for years. He had many friends, who regret his sudden taking away. He was unmarried, and his two brothers, Louis and Joseph, reside at Golconda.

Mending a Broken Heart with Whisky. A man in Reno has a broken heart and has gone on a tearing jamboree to mend the fracture. His wife got a divorce from him some months ago, and since that time he has been trying to "make it up" with her. She went to San Francisco and has been corresponding with him regularly, until a few days ago, when he received a letter stating that she had married another fellow. Hence the big drunk.

RUMORS OF WAR.

A Report that the Piutes and Washoes are Having a Fight.

A report reached Reno to-day that the Piutes and Washoes were having a pitched battle somewhere near Wadsworth, about who should be chief of the Piutes. The Washoes take great interest in the matter, and declare that Naches shall not be chief. The report needs confirmation, but it has been expected for a long time that hostilities would break out between the two tribes. The last fight they had was on the 14th of June, 1893, when the Piutes tried to take a horse away from a Washoe. Since the war of 1859 the Washoes had not been permitted by the Piutes to own a horse or keep a gun. On that day about 150 Piutes attacked a band of Washoes about two miles south of the Lake House, of which M. C. Lake was then landlord. They have been at loggerheads for many years, and now that the Washoes have grown in numbers and become quite independent, having ponies and arms, they propose to see who is the "best Injun." They are athletic fellows, as a general thing, and will give Piutes plenty of rough and tumble when they get to open war with them.

A Pleasant Surprise.

Last evening being the first anniversary of their wedding, Mr. and Mrs. F. McRae were the recipients of a very pleasant and complete surprise from their many friends. Mac and wife were enjoying all the pleasing comforts of "an evening at home," when all at once, from all sides of the house, burst forth the sweet strains of music. "What is this!" exclaimed Mrs. Mac in innocent surprise, as the chorus swelled louder and clearer. "A serenade, I suppose," said Mac; "but I'll soon find out." On opening the door, the host of friends marched in until every nook and corner of their cosy home was filled, when Mac exclaimed: "What does all this mean!" Having thus unceremoniously taken possession of the house, all hands proceeded to enjoy themselves and have a good time generally. All agreed "that it was good to be there." During the evening Judge Webster in a witty and appropriate speech presented to Mr. and Mrs. McRae, on behalf of their many friends, a handsome parlor lounge as a token of their esteem for Mac and wife. The affair was a delightful success, and will be remembered with pleasure by all who were there.

The Asylum.

Superintendent Dawson, of the asylum, is making many improvements at the asylum grounds. He has had about 50 acres cleared of sage brush and plowed nearly all of it. The premises look very much better than when the doctor went there. The coming summer he will raise enough potatoes to supply the asylum and prison.

Annual Shooting.

The annual shooting for the regimental medal will take place next Sunday. Shooting will commence promptly at 10 o'clock and Captain Moger desires every member of the Reno Guard to be on hand early. The shooting will take place at the prison ground range. Read the notice in another column.

Card of Thanks.

I desire to express my sincere and heartfelt thanks to all my family friends who were so kind and attentive during the last weeks of my wife's sickness, and after her death. The kindly spirit manifested was very gratifying to me and will never be forgotten. ORRIN C. ROSS. Reno, Nov. 23d, 1892.

DR. LIEBIG, 400 Geary Street, San Francisco, Cal.

CONTINUES TO TREAT successfully every form of Special or Chronic Disease without Mercury or Nauseous Drugs. Dr. Liebig's Invigorator is a positive and permanent cure for Seminal Weakness, Nervous and Physical Debility, Lost Manhood, Vital Exhaustion, and all the terrible results of abused nature, excesses and youthful follies. The Doctor will accept no fee until he has secured permanent cure. The reason thousands can not get cured of Seminal Weakness and the above diseases is owing to a complication on called Prostatitis, which requires a special remedy. Dr. Liebig's INVIGORATOR, No. 2, is a special cure for Prostatitis. Price of either Invigorator, $2 per bottle, or 6 bottles for $10. Sent to any address securely covered from observation. Seminal Weakness and Prostatitis drain vitality from the body and cause numerous diseases that baffle ordinary medical treatment. If allowed to continue, the unnatural loss affects the vital organs, which causes destroying diseases. Consumption, Diabetes, Bright's Disease, Jaundice, Leucorrhoea, Excesses, Nervous Abuse, Inherited Weakness, Malnutrition, Spinal and Cerebral Complaints bring in the above fatal diseases. Debility and Seminal Weakness obstruct the important and necessary action of life and their enjoyments. Cures Guaranteed. Diseases of the Genito-urinary Organs, Kidney, Liver and Bladder a specialty. The many complaints and diseases of women speedily cured; consultation at office or by letter, free and confidential.

ONE BOTTLE FREE.

Regular size bottle of either Invigorator sent free to show the wonderful properties of the greatest Invigorator known to modern science. State symptoms, age, if married.

ORDINARY CASES—my recent case of special or private disease cured for $10. Remedies sufficient to cure will be promptly sent with full directions and advice on receipt of $10. All packages securely covered from observation.

YOUNG MEN

WHO MAY BE SUFFERING FROM the effects of youthful follies or indiscretions, will do well to avail themselves of this, the greatest boon ever offered to the suffering humanity. DR. SPINNEY will guarantee to forfeit $500 for every case of Seminal Weakness or private disease of any kind or character which he undertakes and fails to cure.

MIDDLE-AGED MEN.

There are many at the age of thirty and sixty who are troubled with too frequent evacuations of the bladder, often accompanied by a slight smarting or burning sensation and a weakening of the system in a manner the patient cannot account for. On examining the urinary deposits aropy sediment will often be found, and some small particles of albumen will appear, or the color will be of a thick milky hue, again changing to a dark and turbid appearance. There are many men who die of this difficulty, ignorant of the cause, which is the second stage of seminal weakness. Dr. S. will guarantee a perfect cure in all such cases, and a healthy restoration of the genital-urinary organs.

Office Hours—10 to 4 and 6 to 8. Sundays from 10 to 11 a. m. Consultation Free. Thorough examination and advice $5. P. S. For private diseases of short standing a full course of medicines sufficient for a cure, with necessary instructions, will be sent to any address on receipt of Ten Dollars.
